Latin America Experience Representative Matters:

- In an arbitration under ICSID rules regarding the expropriation of an investment in six hydroelectric plants, representation of a contractor against the Republic of Peru.
- In an ICC arbitration representing a leading port and cargo provider against a Mexican contractor dealing with the breach of contract in a major Mexican southern port.
- Representation of a Peruvian state agency in a Spanish-language arbitration involving IACAC/CIAC rules dealing remediation issues involving Peru's largest oil and gas field.
- Representation of a multinational integrated project developer against the Republic of Panama in two separate Spanish-language ICC arbitrations involving over $100 million and the construction and financing of a series of healthcare public works projects in Panama.
- Representation of an Australian company in an AAA arbitration proceeding involving fraud and public corruption laws against the shareholders of an Ecuadorian company.
- Representation of a foreign affiliate of a Fortune 100 company and defense contractor against an agency of Venezuela in Spanish language ICC arbitration matter in Madrid, Spain where the Venezuelan agency asserted claims of $155 million in damages in regard to the repair of two submarines.
- Representation of a gas company in an ICDR arbitration against a Brazilian promotor claiming $20 million resulting from the termination of development and power purchase agreements.
- Representation of an EPC contractor against the Republic of Bolivia in a Spanish-language ICC arbitration involving the construction and financing of a water and sewer facility in a local municipality.
- Representation of a contractor against the Republic of El Salvador in a Spanish-language ICC arbitration involving the construction and financing of a hospital in a local municipality.
- Representation of an American warehouse chain in a claim against a Central American bank for over $100 million resulting from the termination of the banking relationship in federal court and in an arbitration governed by UNCITRAL rules,
- Representation of the principal shareholder of the Hipodromo de las Americas in Panama in an ICDR arbitration against a provider of gambling equipment,
- Representation of five siblings in an ICDR arbitration seated in Miami involving a family dispute regarding the ownership of a Mexican film library of 700 films.
- Representation of a client against a broker claiming over $10 million as a commission for the placement of two temporary electric plants in Argentina.
- Representation of a contractor in an ICSID arbitration against Honduras over the failure of the state to provide adequate protection of a toll road.