Peter focuses his litigation practice on business and company-related disputes (internal and external), defense of professionals and fiduciaries in federal and state courts, and arbitration. He has extensive trial experience in state and federal courts, representing prominent attorneys, developers, and corporate officers and directors. He also has represented a wide range of businesses, including publicly held companies in business disputes involving unfair competition, tortious interference, and enforcement of restrictive covenants. Peter's practice involves the following areas:

- Contract, shareholder, and partnership derivative disputes
- Corporate liability defense: defending parent companies, subsidiaries, and their officers and directors, as well as defense of claims involving alter-ego, fiduciary breaches, conspiracy, joint venture, agency, fraudulent transfer, False Claims Act liability, and retaliation
- Extensive class action defense across various industries, including healthcare
- Lanham Act (False Advertising, 15 U.S.C 1125) and common law and statutory claims based on unfair competition and trade practices, non-competes, and non-solicits and tortious interference
- Probate & Trust Litigation

Recognitions

The bar rules of some states require that the standards for an attorney's inclusion in certain public accolades or recognitions be provided. When such accolades or recognitions are listed, a hyperlink is provided that leads to a description of the respective selection methodology.
