Connect CRE Selects Hollie Croft for Lawyers in Real Estate Award

ORLANDO -- Nelson Mullins partner Hollie Croft was recently selected for Connect CRE's 2021 Lawyers in Real Estate Award.

For the second annual Lawyers in Real Estate Awards, 110 attorneys were selected for excelling in their practices as well as their contributions to the community.

Croft represents for-profit and nonprofit developers in the development, acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, operation, and sale of affordable multifamily housing for families and seniors throughout the United States and Puerto Rico, utilizing a wide range of federal, state, and local affordable housing programs. She also represents developers in market rate transactions.

Established in 1897, Nelson Mullins is an Am Law 100 firm of more than 850 attorneys and government relations professionals with offices in 11 states and Washington, D.C. For more information on the firm, go to www.nelsonmullins.com.
